A step further toward transformation

“If we give children the space and the possibilities they need to move freely, they will do so with as much beauty and grace as animals: with agility, simplicity, confidence and naturalness.”

THANK YOU!

Mayama Community.

On the occasion of our 15th anniversary, at Mayama A.C. we express our deepest gratitude to all the persons, families, institutions and allies who have made this journey possible.

Thank you to children and families who have placed their trust in our support. Their active participation is the axis that gives meaning and direction to our care model.

We recognize the commitment and vocation of our Work Team and Board of Directors, whose professional and human work has been fundamental in implementing, sustaining and strengthening our organization.

We thank our donors for their commitment and trust in making the continuity of our mission possible. We thank our strategic allies who, with their support, have contributed to the development, institutionalization and consolidation of our actions.

Throughout these 15 years, we have reaffirmed our conviction that working closely with people is key to transformation in adverse contexts. This anniversary represents not only a moment of commemoration, but also an opportunity to renew our commitment to children human rights, justice and social impact.

Thank you for being part of this journey and for continuing to build, together with us, better life opportunities.

15 YEARS

Thank you for being part of the transformation.

OUR MISSION

To help children and their families, who face poverty, social exclusion, and violence, develop the skills that will enable them to overcome the challenges of their environment and improve their quality of life.

Mayama 15 YEARS

CHAIR of the Board.

WITH GRATITUDE AND COMMITMENT,
HANS SILVA HINOJOSA.

Today, as we celebrate 15 years of Mayama, it is inevitable to pause to look back with gratitude and, at the same time, forward with deep hope.

Fifteen years represent transformed stories, accompanied paths and, above all, the consolidation of a purpose born of the genuine commitment to believe in the potential of every human being. Throughout this time, Mayama has been a space where children and their families find tools to build a life with dignity, strengthening their character and expanding their opportunities.

We live in a complex reality, where social, economic and human challenges demand that we act with greater awareness and co-responsibility. However, we have also witnessed how civil society, when it organizes itself with a firm purpose as a bastion, has the capacity to transform entire communities. In this context, one of the most significant milestones of this stage was the inauguration of our Center in Tlaquepaque, Jalisco. This space is not just a building; it is a symbol of growth, of trust in our mission and in the possibility of reaching further, impacting more families with quality training programs and a deeply human approach.

None of this would be possible without the commitment of those who have believed in Mayama since its beginning: our donors, collaborators, board members, strategic allies and volunteers. Their generosity and dedication have been the engine that allows us to keep moving forward, even in times of uncertainty. To all of you, my most sincere thanks.

Today we reaffirm that the mission remains valid and more necessary than ever. It inspires us to know that every effort counts, that every impacted life generates a chain of change, and that the future is built with concrete actions in the present. Let us keep working together, with conviction and hope. The coming years invite us to grow, to innovate and to deepen our impact, always placing the dignity of the children at the center.

Because when we believe in the potential of others, we transform realities!

GENERAL Management.

WITH AFFECTION AND GRATITUDE,
GABRIEL LEÓN BARRAGAN.

In 2021, I received an invitation from Mayama's Board of Directors to join as the new General Director, following the successful tenure of my predecessor, Alejandra Peña Pous.

Undoubtedly, the decision to take on this responsibility has represented, in professional terms, the greatest challenge of my life. Looking back at what has transpired during my tenure at the helm, it is essential to highlight the events that have shaped the organization's trajectory in recent years: the COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting public health and economic crisis; the relaunch of the "Transforming Lives" campaign for the construction of the Mayama Center; the construction process itself, a milestone unprecedented for the organization; and the commencement of operations in a new location following our move in 2025. While it may sound simple, the fact is that Mayama never once suspended its operations, nor did it ever leave behind any of the individuals it serves or any of its own staff members. Throughout this period, Mayama and all of us who work here, demonstrated a remarkable capacity for resilience and adaptation to the times we were living through. Managing this change was, by no means, an easy task; yet, I can share with great pride: mission accomplished.

Now, in this new phase, having built our own home and reached a high level of institutional maturity, the focus shifts to consolidating the Mayama model, fostering a new organizational culture, ensuring operational sustainability, extending our impact into new territories, and why not?, expanding the organization's overall reach. All these elements are part of what our former president and current board member, Jose Luis Basurto González, has termed "Mayama's new season." To this end, the organization is already working on defining its new Strategic Map 3.0, which will cover the 2026–2030 period.

We are incredibly enthusiastic and excited about this new phase, and we would like to invite you to continue accompanying us, whether as a child, adolescent, family member, donor, collaborator, advisor, or ally. And for those who are not yet familiar with our work, we invite you to get to know us, join us, and together continue driving transformation.

MAYAMA.

Our care model places children and adolescents, along with their human rights, and holistic development at the center. It also fosters the transformation of the families and communities that surround them, through three programs:

My Development:
This program strengthens the life skills in children—as defined by the World Health Organization—while promoting progressive autonomy, participation, and the development of their own life goals.

My Family:
This program reinforces the parenting competencies of families, helping them create safe environments for children's development and the full exercise of their rights, thereby improving their quality of life.

My Community:
This program provides support to families in resolving situations that infringe upon children's rights, while promoting their participation and full access to justice, with the assistance of public, private, and third-sector stakeholders.

DOMINIK

GROWING UP
accompanied,

MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

DOMINIK'S case.

A MEDICAL INTERVENTION,
KEY TO HIS WELL-BEING.

Dominik arrived at Mayama accompanied by his grandmother, Gloria, and his siblings, at a point when life had already demanded far too much of them.

From a very young age, he had lived with a health condition that could never be addressed in time, not for a lack of love, but due to a lack of resources, information, and guidance.

Gloria, his grandmother, is the pillar of the family; Dominik, Natalia, and Ian live with her. Their story is that of many families in Mexico who, in the absence of sufficient support, reorganize their lives to protect their children—even when doing so entails exhaustion, fear, and uncertainty.

WHEN THE FAMILY JOINED MAYAMA, DOMINIK BEGAN TO RECEIVE COMPREHENSIVE SUPPORT THROUGH OUR THREE PROGRAMS:

My Family, My Development and My Community.

- My Family program: the intervention focused on strengthening family bonds and supporting Gloria in her role as caregiver.
- My Development program: Dominik attends the Mayama Center twice a week to strengthen life skills.
- My Community program: Mayama supported the case management, linking the family with health services and community support.

In September 2024, Gloria sought support to address Dominik's health needs. For years, she had known that her grandson required surgery, but she had no way to access it. A lack of resources and the overwhelming demands of daily life had delayed urgent medical care.

Finally, in 2025, Dominik was able to undergo the surgery he so desperately needed. This was more than just a medical procedure; it was a pivotal step toward his overall well-being.

Today, he plays soccer, participates actively in Mayama's programs, and speaks with excitement about his dreams. His health has improved, as have his self-confidence, his spirits, and his ability to express himself. His grandmother, while still facing challenges, knows she is not alone; she has access to information, guidance, and a support network that walks alongside her.

DOMINIK'S STORY SHOWS US HOW A CHILD'S LIFE CAN BE TRANSFORMED

when timely, consistent action is taken through complementary interventions, that encompass personal development, family support, and community engagement.

"Education does not change the world:
it changes the people who are going to change the world."

Paulo Freire.

Responsabilidades de la administración de la Asociación en relación con los estados financieros

La administración de la Asociación es responsable de la preparación y presentación razonable de los estados financieros, de conformidad con las Normas de Información Financiera y del control interno que la administración consideró necesario para permitir la preparación de los estados financieros libres de desviación material debida a fraude o error.

En la preparación de los estados financieros, la administración es responsable de la valoración de la capacidad de la Asociación para continuar como entidad en funcionamiento (negocio en marcha), revelando, en su caso, las cuestiones relacionadas con la Asociación en funcionamiento y utilizando la norma contable de negocio en marcha excepto si la administración tiene la intención de liquidar o de cesar operaciones, o bien no exista otra alternativa más realista.

La administración de la Asociación es responsable de la supervisión del proceso de información financiera de Mayama, A.C.

Responsabilidad de los auditores en relación con la auditoría de los estados financieros

Nuestros objetivos son obtener una seguridad razonable de que los estados financieros en su conjunto están libres de desviación material, debido a fraude o error, y emitir un informe de auditoría que contiene nuestra opinión. Seguridad razonable es un nivel alto de seguridad, pero no garantiza que una auditoría realizada de conformidad con las NIA siempre detecte desviación material cuando existe. Las desviaciones pueden deberse a fraude o error y se consideran materiales si, individualmente o de forma conjunta, puede preverse razonablemente que influyan en las decisiones económicas que los usuarios toman basándose en los estados financieros.

Descripción adicional de mis responsabilidades sobre la auditoría de los estados financieros

Como parte de una auditoría de conformidad con las NIA, se aplicó juicio profesional y se mantuvo una actitud de escepticismo profesional durante toda la auditoría.

También: Identificamos y valoramos los riesgos de incorrección material en los estados financieros, debido a fraude o error, se diseñaron y aplicaron procedimientos de auditoría para responder a dichos riesgos y obtuve evidencia de auditoría suficiente y adecuada para proporcionar una base para nuestra opinión. El riesgo de no detectar una desviación material debida a fraude es más elevado que en el caso de una incorrección material debida a error, ya que el fraude puede implicar colusión, falsificación, omisiones deliberadas, manifestaciones intencionadamente erróneas o la elusión del control interno.

Evaluamos la adecuación de las políticas contables aplicadas y la razonabilidad de las estimaciones contables y la correspondiente información revelada por la dirección
